

TRUJILLO & CHICLAYO 5-DAY PROGRAM

LIMA – TRUJILLO - CHICLAYO
(5 Days / 4 Nights)

MAY 2022

DAY 1 LIMA – TRUJILLO

(Meal Plan: none)

Around 8:30am you will be transferred to the airport to take your domestic flight to Trujillo (air ticket is not included).

Welcome to Trujillo, you will be met and transferred to the hotel to drop off your luggage.

You will continue with your city tour in Trujillo. Prepare yourself for an insightful tour through Trujillo's historic center. Peru's third largest city and the first of which founded by Spanish conquerors who built it next to the former capital of the Chimu Kingdom (1200 – 1470 AC). During this period Trujillo developed its own architectural style which can be seen in its gracious houses that feature ornamental ironwork around its windows. Your tour includes a visit to one of these unique mansions – a 'must-see' in the city that contains Peru's greatest collection of colonial homes.

DAY 2 TRUJILLO

(Meal Plan: Breakfast)

Today you explore Trujillo's archaeological and cultural heritage on a full-day tour. The Temples of the Sun and Moon played a major role for the Moche civilization (100-900 AD). The finely decorated Temple of the Moon represents the spiritual center for the Moches. Some of the walls feature multi-colored murals depicting scenes in which they were shown to be a war-like community. As you stroll through the Temple of the Moon you will get a panoramic view over the Temple of the Sun - considered to be one of the largest adobe structures in the Americas. The adjacent museum displays artifacts uncovered in the temples. You then stop at Huanchaco, a charming village where the ancient tradition of fishing from reed watercrafts is still maintained and practiced. In Chan Chan, your guide will introduce you to the capital city of the former kingdom of Chimu culture (1200 to 1470 AD). This enormous archaeological complex, covering an area of 18 km², was the largest Pre-Columbian mud city in South America and remained the capital of the Chimu civilization until they were conquered by the Inca in the 15th century.

DAY 3 TRUJILLO – CHICLAYO

(Meal Plan: Breakfast)

Journey in private vehicle from Trujillo to Chiclayo (approx. 222 km/138 miles). En-route you make a detour and visit the 'El Brujo' or 'Witch Doctor' complex. This designation is owed to the fact that for hundreds of years healing masters congregated here in order to perform shamanic rituals. This archaeological complex comprises of three pyramids, namely, Huaca El Brujo, Huaca Prieta and Huaca Cao. The latter of the three being the only one which is able to be visited, and it was here that a well-preserved mummy of a woman and a rich array of funeral objects including fine jewelry and weapons were found in 2006. You have the chance to see Huaca Cao's multi-colored friezes and reliefs featuring the Moche deity Ai Apaec, warriors, prisoners and sacrificial scenes. The local museum displays the mummy, said to be the first known female ruler in Peru and baptized as 'The Lady of Cao'. The museum also showcases objects from the different cultures that settled in this area, documenting 5,000 years of history.

DAY 4 CHICLAYO

(Meal Plan: Breakfast and Lunch)

Your full-day trip begins with a visit to Huaca Rajada, the place where the elaborate, jewelry-filled tomb of the Lord of Sipan was discovered in 1987. The tombs at Huaca Rajada have been decorated with replicas of the original findings on display in the Museum Royal Tombs of Sipan in Lambayeque. Though, all of the artifacts unearthed by the archaeologists since 2007 are now exhibited in the adjacent museum. Later on, you visit the Museum of the Royal Tombs of Sipan, one the best archaeological museums in the country. Shaped like a Moche pyramid, it contains the gold masks, scepters, jewelry and other objects from the royal Moche tomb discovered in 1987. The exhibition succeeds in evoking the magnificence and high degree of development of the ancient Moche civilization (100-900 AD) which is hard to imagine when exploring the eroded adobe pyramids. You will also explore Tucume. This area was a majorly populated center, perhaps the capital of each of the successive cultures of the area, the Lambayeque/Sican (1000/1000-1350 AD). From the lookout on Cerro Purgatorio you can enjoy panoramic views over the entire complex, embracing 26 eroded adobe pyramids. The local museum displays photographs and artifacts from the excavations.

DAY 5 CHICLAYO – LIMA

(Meal Plan: Breakfast)

It is time to say goodbye. At proper time, you will be transferred to the airport to take your departure flight (air ticket is not included). Back home with incredible memories to share with your loved ones.
